Friday Night, September 13, 1907."Convention Hall," on Fifth street, which is said to hold six thousand people, was filled with eager, anxious people by 8 o'clock. Dr. Booker T.
Washington was the center of attraction, and his arrival was awaited with bated breath. Prof. Pius and his great choir rendered some choice selections.
Rev. A. Hubbs, of Louisiana, conducted the devotional exercises. President Morris introduced Prof. Washington in appropriate style. Mr. Washington made the best speech that he has ever made to the delegates of the National Baptist Convention, and they manifested great interest in the speaker and his message. His speech will linger long in the memories of his hearers and accomplish much in the development of the race.

Saturday.

Dr. O. C. Boothe, of Sango Baptist College, Indian Territory, was introduced and made some inspiring remarks. Rev. J. E. Stratton stated that he had made a will to the Foreign Mission Board, and admonished all the ministers to do likewise.Dr. C. H. Clark introduced Dr. R. H.
Boyd, who announced that Rev. Wm.
Beckham would read the report of the Home Mission Board. This report showed that $54,000 had been spent in home fields during the year. Mr. H.
Allen Boyd read the report of the National Baptist Publishing Board, which showed that that Board had collected $160,152.14 during the year.Rev. J. P. Robinson in merry style addressed the Convention concerning the qualification of gospel ministers.
Dr. Robinson spoke in his humorous way for thirty minutes, and introduced Bro. Tarbone, candidate for missionary to the Panama Zone. Bro. Tar-bone made a pathetic appeal for help.
Bro. H. Bell, missionary from Arizona, was introduced.The Committee on Time and Place recommended that the next session of the Convention be held in New Orleans, La. No sooner had the report been submitted than half the delegates were up shouting New Orleans, New York, etc. Dr. Topp made a most eloquent, vigorous speech nominating New York. Dr. Hubbs then made a masterly effort nominating New Orleans. Rev. Pierce improved the oratorical in pleading for California. Rev.
Shaw urged them to come to Boston in what was the most eloquent and captivating speech of the series. Rev.
W. H. Jernagin pushed the claims of Oklahoma in earnest, vigorous style.
Dr. Robert Mitchell made a rousing speech for Kentucky. Kentucky withdrew in favor of New York, Oklahoma was withdrawn in favor of New Orleans, Los Angeles withdrew for New York. The vote was then taken with the following result: New York, 375; New Orleans, 289; Boston, 10. When New York was announced the enthusiasm at once reached the highest pitch.

WALDEN UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Dr. R. F. Boyd, one of Nashville's most eminent and highly esteemed physicians, has been selected by the Alumni Association of Walden University to represent them before the Tennessee Annual Conference of the M. E. Church. The conference convenes in Memphis, September 25. Dr.
Boyd, as is well known, possesses great business tact and magnetism as a speaker, and the Alumni are confident they have planned wisely and well in thus choosing one of their most eminent colleagues to appear before this assembly; that he will make a strong plea for the cause he is to espouse, is a foregone conclusion, and the Alumni believe much will be accomplished in the campaign for raising $40,000 for an administration building for Walden University.
